

Linda Bean is in her 13th year as band director at Cullman Middle School in Cullman, Alabama. Mrs. Bean directs the middle school band program including marching, concert, and jazz bands. In addition, Mrs. Bean directs the beginner band programs at East and West Elementary in Cullman and assists with band sectionals at Cullman High School. Linda, a graduate of Fairview High School, attended Wallace State College, where she received her Associates of Arts degree. She also received a Bachelor of Music Education degree from the University of North Alabama. Mrs. Bean is on staff at Wallace State College as a part time music faculty member where she also serves as the Pre-Camp Coordinator for the Southeastern All-Star Summer Music Camp. Mrs. Bean credits her interest in music education to the direction of renowned band director Steve McClendon whom she began studying trumpet under at Fairview High School. Linda is married to Robert Bean and has two children, Robert and Marie Bean. Her professional affiliations include MENC, AEA, and the Who's Who of American High School Teachers.