

Summer Reading – World History (9th grade)

All 9th grade students take Modern World History. Every 9th grade student taking World History must read Lord of the Nutcracker Men by Ian Lawrence (see requirements from 2009-10 Course Catalog listed below).

4201 Modern World History P1

4202 Modern World History P2

This course emphasis is placed on geographic impact, development of civic knowledge/responsibilities, and emerging economic systems 1500 to present. Students will analyze the development and changes in European, Asian, African, and American civilizations and ways in which the interactions of these cultures have influenced the formation of today's world. The following summer reading assignment must be completed before returning to school in August.

1. Read Lord of the Nutcracker Men by Ian Lawrence.
2. There will be a test and/or writing assignment when students return to school.
